This mission directive prescribes the mission, organization, and responsibilities of the 34th Training Squadron, Headquarters United States Air Force Academy, Colorado.

1. Authority. AFI 38-101, as implemented by DAF/PE 680r, letter, 30 September 1994, Organization Actions Affecting Certain United States Air Force Academy Units, and Special Order Number GS-2, Headquarters US Air Force Academy, 21 October 1994.

2. Mission. Plans, coordinates, implements, and evaluates all formal training programs under the jurisdiction of the Headquarters 34th Training Wing Commander.

3. Organization. The 34th Training Squadron is assigned to the Headquarters 34th Training Group. The 34th Training Squadron is comprised of Operations Flight, running Combat Survival Training (CST), Combat Arms Training and Maintenance, and Summer Programs; and Training Flight, running Cadet Professional Military Education (CPME) and coordinating Basic Cadet Training.

4. Responsibilities. The 34th Training Squadron Commander:

4.1. Develops CPME curriculum and courseware in Leadership and Officership skills; oversees scheduling, presentation, and evaluation of CPME to 4,000 cadets annually by cadet training staff and over 150 adjunct staff instructors.

4.2. Schedules all summer training involving more than 4,000 cadets each summer (32 programs, including basic cadet training, CST, and the world-wide deployment of 1,000 cadets in Operation Air Force).

4.3. Plans and conducts DoD-certified Code of Conduct Survival training for more than 1,200 cadets annually, including training and supervision of more than 700 cadet instructors.

4.4. Plans, schedules, and conducts Combat Arms Training for cadets and for over 12,000 active duty personnel from various units in the Pikes Peak region.

4.5. Oversees all activities in the Jack's Valley Training Complex, supervises all training facilities there, and coordinates the use of those facilities with any Academy or non-Academy users.

4.6. The 34th Training Squadron Commander, or the Headquarters 34th Training Group Commander, may impose nonjudicial punishment on enlisted members assigned to the 34th Training Squadron.

4.7. The Headquarters 34th Training Wing provides administrative and orderly room support for assigned personnel.

5. Relationship to Other Units or Agencies. Direct communication with other US Air Force Academy agencies, Headquarters US Air Force, Secretary of the Air Force, other US Air Force MAJCOMs, and other Department of Defense agencies and activities will normally be coordinated through the 34th Training Group. Direct time critical communications that support mission objectives are authorized and do not require the 34th Training Group coordination.
